
Loren Lewisohn

Background Son of award-winning documentary filmmaker Walter Lewisohn and broadcast news commentator, journalist and best-selling author Florence Lewisohn. Raised and educated in Westchester County – Yorktown Heights, New York and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Work Experience 2006-Present Worldview Educational Network, www.sacredimagery.com

Founder, Creative Director

Worldview Educational Network was established in 2006 to offer a compendium of resources for local and global transformation. Through the creation and publication of audio books, videos, articles and books and artwork, Worldview Educational Network strives to showcase the potential for coherent paradigm shift. Created a series of metaphysical greeting cards and an international date book based on photographic images from around the world. Works in progress include a series of audio books and limited edition prints, as well as ongoing interviews with new millennial visionaries.

1980-2006

Freelance Videographer, Writer, Artist, and Producer

Traveled extensively throughout the world, documenting these travels through film, still photography and writing. Traveled to Hawaii to assist in the production of ABC's Wide World of Sports surf championships. Created and marketed exotic wood sculptures and handcrafted homes in Hawaii. Participated in Public Access Television productions, including videotaping local artists, events and nature. Co-produced "Rainforest Awakening," a world-fusion music album. Worked on an autobiographical book "Pilgrim's Journey" concerning international adventures detailing history, culture and metaphysics. Interviewed artists, Amazonian Shamans, Yogis, psychics, healers and a diversity of holistic health practitioners.

1970-1980 Walter Lewisohn Associates, Yorktown Heights, NY

Creative Arts Associate

Co-produced 16mm documentary films on global culture and ecology.

Education Storm King School, Cornwall-on-Hudson, New York

Verde Valley School, Sedona, Arizona.

The American School, Lugano, Switzerland

University of New Mexico – Field Archeology Program (helped excavate the largest unexcavated Native American Pueblo in the U.S.)

Nasson College, Springvale, Maine – A.A. degree

Travel Experience Traveled through much of the United States and Canada. Traveled through Europe as a student/tourist doing still photography. Visited Brazil on a cultural tour. Studies and traveled extensively within Scandinavia. Traveled extensively throughout the Caribbean, Mexico and parts of South America. Journeyed through much of Asia, including Nepal, India, Cambodia, Laos and Thailand, documenting most of these travels through videography. Traveled to Greece and Indonesia.

Goals As the founder of Worldview Educational Network, my goal is to promote a well functioning world based on democratic principles which fosters an ever-increasing awareness concerning cultural advancement and ecology. Toward this aim, I am committed to documenting the goings-on across the planet, primarily through the use of videography, photography and writing, which centers on bioregional analysis... including comparisons of both sustainable and unsustainable trends.
